MAYO TRAIL FROM LOUISA TO BOYD READY FOR BIDS

ADVERTISING FOR CONTRACT LETTING EXPECTED TO APPEAR WITHIN A FEW DAYS.

Again Lawrence county has come to the rescue and the construction of the Mayo Trail through the Big Sandy Valley is an assured fact.

The Lawrence Fiscal Court met Tuesday and made some slight changes in former orders, thus removing the last obstacle in the way of letting the contracts for the road through Lawrence county. The commissions appointed to sell the county bonds reported that $90 on the dollar was the best bid obtained. Neither the fiscal court nor the State Road department would accept that bid. So the two national banks at Louisa agreed to buy at par the amount of bonds necessary to apply on the work now ready to be let.

Mr. Posey was present and stated that advertisements would be placed at once, calling for bids on grading the section from Louisa to the Boyd county line. When contracted this will obligate the federal government to the entire Mayo Trail project, and this will be closed up before July 1.

This will be good news to the people of Lawrence county. Also, the upper Big Sandy Valley will be delighted. Being the first county in the valley proper, the whole project depends upon Lawrence. Floyd county has already taken care of her part of the road and is building it.

Johnson and Floyd will have sections of their Mayo Trail line very soon. Pike will wait until next year, as she is building a road to Williamson this year.

MAN AND CHILD KILLED IN PIKE

POND CREEK IS SCENE OF A SHOCKING TRAGEDY LAST MONDAY.

A man named Brown was brought to Louisa on N. & W. train 29 Monday evening and lodged in jail over night. He is charged with killing a man named Humphreys and his little daughter on Pond Creek, Pike county. Brown was taken to Pikeville Tuesday morning by deputy sheriff Evans.

It is said that Brown had alienated Humphreys' wife and that she had taken her little four year old daughter with her to Brown's place of residence. Humphreys went there to get the child and Brown killed him and his little daughter.

No weapon was found on Humphreys. Brown has a wound on one hand which he claimed was caused by a shot fired by Humphreys, but it is charged he did it himself. The double murder has aroused much feeling against Brown and he appeared very much afraid of a mob, it is said.

Lawrence and Boyd County Agricultural Encampment

Beginning August 22, and continuing through the week, there will be held in this county, through the united efforts of Lawrence and Boyd county agents, and G. C. Baker, Lawrence county agent, there will be an encampment of the Junior Agricultural Club of the two counties. Two hundred and fifty boys and girls are expected to attend the encampment. The State agricultural experiment station will send here some prominent men connected with this line of work—Ashland item.

Prisoners Escape From Lawrence County Jail

Tuesday night the prisoners in the county jail at Louisa escaped by sawing their way out. There were four of them, as follows:

Sherman Marcum, Ray Holt, Lee Morris and Ed. Lanford. Marcum was being held under a bond for good behavior, which he had failed to give. Holt had not been tried. The other two were strangers arrested for having moonshine in their possession. They had waived examination and were awaiting action of the grand jury. Morris gave his home as Middleboro, and Lanford claimed to be from Burnside, Ky.

None of them has been captured.

BAKER FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE.

Hon. John M. Baker, of Knott county, father of County Agent G. C. Baker of Lawrence county, is a candidate for Circuit Judge in the Floyd-Knott district. He has been prosecuting attorney in that district and made an excellent record. He is a very high type of citizen and official.

OIL MEN VOTE TO STOP DEVELOPING

The East Kentucky Oil & Gas Men's Association held a large and enthusiastic meeting at Paintsville Monday night which was attended by prominent operators from this entire section. Much interest was manifested and all present pronounced the meeting a decided success.

A swell banquet was served which was presided over by Mr. James W. Turner as chairman and toastmaster. Mr. Turner is an expert in this line and he handled the meeting with his usual easy grace and skill.

A resolution was introduced by Mr. David Browning of this city and adopted by a unanimous vote to ask Congress to place a duty of not less than $1.00 per barrel on all crude oil imported into the United States. A copy of this resolution was ordered sent to each of the Kentucky delegations in congress with a request that they urge the passage of a law of this kind to keep the oil industry of the United States from being ruined. During the discussion on this resolution, information was brought out that Mexico is shipping oil into the United States now at the rate of 450,000 barrels per day.

The committee on pipe line construction and service made its report. The Cumberland four inch pipe line has been completed from the oil fields of Johnson and Magoffin counties and it now taps the main line at Jennio's Creek.

A committee was appointed to take up the question of regrading the oil produced in this entire field. Much of the oil from this field is now above 85 gravity which would class it as the best Somerset oil.

A resolution was adopted that all operation for drilling cease until the oil market improves except those as to offset wells.

The road road question came in for a discussion and the good roads committee reported that the survey for the new road from Paintsville to Haysersville had already been made and that work would be started some time soon. This will mean much to the oil industry of that section—Ashland Independent.

MANLEY VAUGHAN BURIED FRIDAY

The funeral of Manley Vaughan took place last Friday afternoon at the home of his father, W. J. Vaughan, two miles south of Louisa. The body was laid to rest beside that of his mother, who was a victim of the influenza epidemic nearly three years ago.

The funeral was preached by Dr. C. F. Anderson, pastor of the Baptist church at Louisa. Manley was the leader of the young people in this church and Dr. Anderson was very deeply affected by his untimely death. He felt the loss of this promising young man more severely than anyone else, perhaps, outside of the immediate family. He paid the highest possible tribute to Manley.

A very large crowd was present at the funeral. Many people from Louisa were there. Rev. J. D. Bell and Rev. John Cheap were among the number who went from here.

Manley was barely 18 years of age. After the death of his mother, and during the absence of his older brother, Willis, in school at Georgetown, Ky., he was virtually in charge of the family affairs. His father thought he would have to give up his work as field worker for the Kentucky Sunday School Association in order to take care of the farm and the children, but Manley assumed charge and worked hard and faithfully. There are two brothers and two sisters younger than Manley. The youngest was only a few months old when the mother died.

When called to go to the tug he'd Manley said he did not see how he could leave the farm and the children. The father was away on Sunday school work and he had considerable difficulty in locating him by wire. But he made no effort to be relieved from what he considered a duty and went to the mining region with the troop.

Manley's health had not been good for two years or more, as a result of the influenza, but he kept right on with his arduous duties at home.

Telegrams from all parts of the State have reached Mr. Vaughan, carrying words of sympathy to him.

FEDERAL SOLDIERS THE SOLUTION OF TUG RIVER WAR

STATES UNABLE TO FURNISH ENOUGH TRAINED MEN TO GIVE PROTECTION.

We have interviewed several persons from the Tug river mine war zone in regard to the situation and as to how it should be handled. Some of these persons were in sympathy with the strikers, others were on the opposite side and still others were citizens not engaged in mining, and trying to be neutral. Two were merchants. The one point on which they all practically agree is that proper protection of life and property can be given only by placing a large number of U. S. regular soldiers in there and keeping them on the job until the strike is ended. 1000 soldiers is the number mentioned by some of these people as the minimum number required.

The trouble zone is nearly 20 miles long and there must be enough seasoned soldiers to enforce martial law and absolutely control the territory. Everybody except officers and soldiers must be disarmed, food supplies controlled, and all acts supervised.

The federal government has thousands of men idle in barracks, on full pay. The cost of maintaining them in this tug field would not be much more than the cost in barracks, even if the cost in such a matter be counted. The cost in dollars is not to be considered. Life and property and the maintenance of law and order are at stake.

West Virginia and Kentucky are unable to control the situation. They have not the military forces needed. The men they have in the field now are not trained. It is wrong to send such men into that kind of work. Those who enlist in military service are entitled to thorough training before being called into service. We repeat a statement of last week and are able to prove the truth of it—that some of the Lawrence county troopers could not load the somewhat complicated guns with which they are equipped. Many had never fired one of their guns.

Gov. Morrow Replies.

In answer to the telegram published last week Gov. Morrow replied that he and the Governor of West Virginia had repeatedly implored the President to send United States troops but without avail. He says under this state of case he feels compelled to keep State troops in the mine zone.

Dr. Edgar Peters is Graduated at Baltimore

On June 1st Edgar A. Peters of Louisa, finished a medical course at the University of Maryland and received his diploma. We are very glad to publish herewith some facts sent us by Dr. Claude Burton, who finished there last year and who is now connected with a hospital in Baltimore. Louisa is proud of both of these young men. They rank with the best of those who have gone out from Big Sandy and made good. Dr. Peters is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Peters.

Dr. Burton writes:

"Dr. Peters was fortunate in choosing University of Maryland for his career of medical learning. It is one of the oldest foundations for medical education in America. Having been established for more than a century, during which time it has always been a leading medical college, especially prominent in the south, widely known and highly honored throughout the country. University of Maryland is also to be remembered for the production of broad minded, generous men, men who bring honor and fame to their own Alma Mater, medical profession and country."

"Dr. Peters is one of the recent graduates of the University of Maryland medical department. He is a native of Louisa and graduate of the High School and Scientific departments of the K. N. C.

Through his untiring energy, earnestness and devotion as a student at University of Maryland he won the esteem and confidence of his classmates and professors and in recognition of this was a member of the Phi Chi fraternity and president of one of the honorary surgical societies.

The medical course of today is quite different from the past. With the many new theories and discoveries concerning the medical profession and the addition of new subjects the course is much longer and more difficult to master."

BUYS A FARM.

Charley Preston of Sprigg, W. Va., was here Saturday and also at Richardson the first of this week. While there he bought of J. W. Akers the Dutton farm. His son-in-law will move from Sprigg to the farm. Mr. Preston is a native of this county. He has been in the merchandising business at Sprigg about eight years.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Woman's Missionary Society meeting was held on Tuesday afternoon at the church. Mrs. Nora Sullivan gave a very interesting report of the annual meeting of the societies which she attended in New Martinsville, W. Va., a few days ago.

During the social hour refreshments were served by Mrs. Ella Hays and Mrs. Helen Gearhart.

ROADS MUCH IMPROVED.

The roads of Lawrence county on which work has been done lately are very greatly improved. The road to Webbville is in better condition than for some years. The heavy rains of last Thursday and Friday made some mud holes where no drainage was provided. Some of these places have been worked over. The river road just below Louisa had some bad places of this kind. A little work soon after a heavy rain will prevent little puddles from growing into large mud holes.

GIVE YOUR OLD CLOTHING TO ARMENIANS

Old clothing for men, women and children will be gratefully accepted by the Near East Relief organization. Miss Elizabeth Conley, Louisa, chairman Lawrence county, will furnish tags already directed to the proper place. No straw hats, high heel shoes, slippers, or articles not suitable for ordinary wear are wanted. The naked and starving Armenians, Greeks and other refugees in Asia Minor need articles they can wear next winter and the committees in this country are collecting the clothing now in order to give time to ship them across and distribute them before winter starts.

Contributions of money in any amount should be sent or given to Miss Conley at Louisa.

MINGO COUNTY WAR SUPPLIES CAPTURED

Charleston, W. Va.—Ten thousand rounds of rifle ammunition, consigned to Rld Hatfield, at Matewan, are being held at the express office at Bluefield, according to a message received at the Governor's office. The ammunition is being held in accordance with the request made by Governor Morgan that an embargo be placed on shipment of arms into Mingo county.

21 YEARS GIVEN TWO OFFICIALS

POLICE JUDGE AND MARSHAL IN FLOYD COUNTY CONVICTED OF SLAYING QUARRY.

Prestonsburg, Ky., May 28.—Police Judge Kerry Hager and Town Marshal S. A. Collins, of this county, were sentenced to twenty-one years here today for the killing of Gerard Richmond, a B. & O. bridge guard.

Richmond was slain last October when the two officials sought to arrest him for transporting liquor to his home.

The trial, which brought into the Floyd Circuit Court an array of attorneys of Eastern Kentucky, hinged largely on testimony of an X-ray expert, called on to determine the kind of a bullet imbedded in Collins' leg.

The defense contended that Richmond fired first at the officers. The prosecution sought to prove that Richmond's pistol had not been fired, as it contained only one empty shell, which already was in the weapon when he borrowed it that night. The defense countered with an attempt to show that the weapon had been reloaded.

The State said the ball in Collins' leg was steel and that the marshal must have been shot accidentally by Hager, who used a steel .38 bullet, whereas Richmond's revolver contained lead bullets.

The X-ray expert said the bullet had not flattened against the bone as a lead one would have.

Richmond was shot five times in the back. There were no eye-witnesses to the shooting.

Both sides sought to show previous threats. One witness testified the town marshal had made the statement that he "would give almost anything to get rid of Richmond."

Richmond was quoted as having said that he or Collins one would be killed. The officials asked for a new trial. The case has been in court for a week.—Courier Journal.

Great Meeting Closed at Pikeville Sunday

The Harbin-Watson revival meetings at Pikeville closed Sunday night after a run of six weeks. There were 372 conversions, 79 family altars established, and about 100 persons dedicated to life service.

This was the most successful meeting ever held in Pikeville. After the first two weeks it was conducted as a union meeting, all the churches joining in the campaign.

The evangelistic party has gone to Irvine, Ky., where a meeting will start next Sunday. The large tent used at Pikeville will be occupied at Irvine.

TEN MINGO PRISONERS MOVED TO HUNTINGTON

Ten heavily shackled prisoners from riot-torn Mingo county, four of whom are accused of murder, were taken to the Cabell county jail and delivered to Sheriff W. A. Williams at Huntington for safe-keeping.

Three of the prisoners are accused of the murder during the latest outbreak on Tug river, of Justice of the Peace Harry Staton, at Sprigg. They are Dave Phillips, charged with the murder, and J. C. McCoy and William Parsley, his alleged accomplices. McCoy is said to be a member of the McCoy feudists who fought the Hittfield clan for many years.

The fourth prisoner accused of murder is Ben Page, a negro, who is also under indictment for the Matewan murder of over a year ago. Page has been sentenced to six months on a charge of pistol toting, and in yet to be tried for complicity in the alleged murder of Baldwin-Felts detectives at Matewan.

The other prisoners are Joseph Starr, sentenced to six months for carrying a pistol, Ray Brewster and G. C. Bevins, held for investigation, and James Wall, Elmer Moffett and Shafar Davis. The latter three are negroes, held on minor charges.

The prisoners were brought here because of the crowded condition of the Mingo county jail.

Since the recent outbreak along the Tug river, which was followed by the placing of the district under martial law by Governor Morgan, it was deemed advisable to move many of the prisoners to other counties. It is understood that a second batch of prisoners will be taken to the Mingo county jail at Ft. Pleasant this week.

KENOVA BOY DROWNED.

Twelve-year-old George Cunningham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cunningham of Kenova, met death at four o'clock Thursday afternoon, when he was drawn into an open sewer vent near which he and a party of companions were wading at the corner of Fifteenth and Sycamore streets, Kenova. The tragedy followed a heavy rain. So much water had fallen that the sewers were unable to carry it off and the gutters were flooded. The boys were having a great time wading and were all unheeding of danger, though the current rushing toward the sewer was very strong.

There was no warning of the fate of little Fred Cunningham who was drawn into the vent before his companions realized what was happening. Homer Cunningham, an elder brother, narrowly escaped a like fate, as he was dragged to safety by his companions.

When the youngsters gave the alarm an organized effort to remove the body of the Cunningham boy began. There was little which could be done in this behalf save to search the river at the mouth of the sewer, five hundred yards away.

The body was recovered from the river near Portsmouth a few days later.

Miss Williamson to Wed at Memphis

The following announcement from the News-Scimitar of Memphis, Tenn., refers to Miss Caroline Burns Williamson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Williamson, who are claimed as "home folks" by Louisa people. In connection with these complimentary words, the Memphis paper prints a fine picture of Miss Williamson.

Miss Williamson is the lovely daughter of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Williamson, the date of whose marriage to Mr. Frank Seymour Puller, of Starkville, Miss., has been set for June 15.

For the past two years Miss Williamson has been engaged in government work with the Red Cross in Chicago, having been transferred there after the war, during which she was among the local Red Cross workers.

Miss Williamson is thoroughly charming and has innumerable friends, who are delighted that she return to Memphis for her wedding, which will take place at the First Presbyterian Church, of which her father has for many years been the popular pastor.

Mr. Puller, who is a member of a well-known Mississippi family, is engaged in business in Chicago, where both he and his charming fiancée have many friends.

ROUTE 2, LOUISA

I want to mention the names in your paper of the boys that left their work at home and come to my call for help, to one of the biggest log rollings that has been here for a long time. There were 21 of us all and 10 head of mules and horses on the ground. Talk about rolling logs. We sure did roll them and if ever I needed help in my life it was then. When a big 30 acre new ground laid in front of us and it then very late. These are the names of the noble, good, brave boys and men that heard my call for help: W. S. Vinson, R. W. Vinson, Luther Vinson, Cliff Vinson, Winfield, Jr., and Ben Vinson, Talmage Wells, Weizle Peters, Ralph Ferrell, Otis Ferrell, Critt See, Sr., John See, (Critt's boy) Bill Coburn, Ed Deane, Jeff Workman, Charley Workman, Luther Workman, John Lynch, Homer Peters. These are the good, noble women that came to my wife's call for help: Mrs. Laura Wells, Mrs. Frances Williamson, Mrs. John Lynch, Miss Maud Lynch. The women had enough cooked to feed 40 or 50 men and it was surely cooked good. You know those boys worked so hard they were ready to eat.

Jimlin Vinson has been down with rheumatism for three months and he sent his two boys and they were good ones. They could drive a mule as long as he could stay on the ground. I am going to stand by the boys that came.

Floyd Williamson's family was sick or he would have been in the front lines. Also, E. J. Vinson, who didn't know about my working.

Boys, I don't want you to worry. I know the Lord will help you and I will be with you in the 6th trouble and not forsake you in the 7th. I will always have a tender place in my heart for you all.

Well, I don't know why our correspondent doesn't mention our Sunday school just across the border in West Virginia over at Saltpetre. We have lots of Kentucky children and they are worth your while too. We have 25 to 40 besides our visitors. We have the best Sunday school on the map. We are looking for Mr. and Mrs. Burns and Mr. Cains most any time for they said they were coming.

JAKE WORKMAN.

Debor, who was taken to a hospital at Ironton, Ohio, a few days ago and underwent an operation, died there on May 28 and was brought back here and laid to rest in the family graveyard beside her three children who preceded her to the glory land. She was 38 years of age. She leaves to mourn her absence a husband, six children, Roscoe, Orla, Carrie, William, Brookale and Irvin; father and mother, Irvin and Matilda Griffith; three brothers, William Marion, John Franklin and Henry; two sisters, Mrs. Frank Miller and Mrs. Charley Young; and a host of relatives and friends.

FIRST thing you do next — go get some makin' papers and some Prince Albert tobacco and puff away on a home made cigarette that will hit on all your smoke cylinders!

No use sitting-by and saying maybe you'll cash this hunch tomorrow. Do it while the going's good, for man-o-man, you can't figure out what you're passing by! Such flavor, such coolness, such more-ish-ness—well, the only way to get the words emphatic enough is to go to it and know yourself!

And, besides Prince Albert's delightful flavor, there's its freedom from bite and parch which is cut out by our exclusive patented process! Certainly—you smoke P. A. from sun up till you slip between the sheets without a comeback.

Prince Albert is the tobacco that revolutionized pipe smoking. If you never could smoke a pipe—forget it! You can—AND YOU WILL—if you use Prince Albert for packing! It's a smoke revelation in a jimmy pipe or a cigarette!

Prince Albert is sold in happy red bags, only red bags, hand-some round and half-pound tin tins, and in the round crystal glass holder with sponge moistener top.

MADGE

On Decoration day, a number of friends and relatives met at the old Hutchison homestead to pay honor to their beloved dead. Of the original Hutchison family there were twelve in number none of whom is living.

There is hardly a family so large as this all having died, none having reached a very old age.

At about the noon hour the entire number enjoyed a splendid repast specially prepared by skilled hands for the occasion, and after the luncheon a song service was engaged in, singing the good old songs of other days, songs that were sung by those who have crossed the bar and while singing these songs we were brought seemingly face to face with the many loved ones who formerly had gathered there on like occasions.

After the song service which lasted about an hour the company marched to the cemetery with filled baskets of flowers and pinned them on the graves of each who lies buried there. Many others beside the family have been buried there and their graves were also decorated. There beneath the beautiful shade trees we rested a while and the hallowed influences of our fathers and mothers came sweeping in upon us and we felt the impress and so to speak were within its powers. These memorial days observed any and everywhere where civilization has made its way are not without results.

It is a pleasure to note that our old friend Jasper Roberts made his way from his home to this place by the aid of two walking canes, having stated to us that he had not ridden horseback for five years and beside his affliction of feebleness he is almost blind, but he made the trip safe and sound. Glad that he could be there on this occasion. He seems as happy and contented as though possessed with perfect health.

When A Man Marries

At a recent national conference of savings bank officials it was said that married men save more than single men—and more savings accounts are opened in June than in any other month.

So June, the month of brides—and sweet girl graduates and eager boys with the light of the world's battles in their eyes—is also the month of Savings Accounts.

But why limit this advantage to married folks? Everyone needs a savings account and now is the best time to start one.

And here is a good place—where good service and security of funds make our interest rate doubly attractive.

A LOUISA'S MAN'S EXPERIENCE

Can you doubt the evidence of this Louisa citizen? You can verify Louisa endorsement. Read this: Wm. Clay, Railroad St., says: "I've about five years ago since I used Doan's Kidney Pills, but from past experience, I have no hesitation in recommending them. My kidneys were in a weak and disordered condition and I was greatly annoyed having to get up so often during the night to pass the kidney secretions. They were highly colored, and deposited sediment. My back was so painful I couldn't stoop to pull on my shoes of a morning. One of the family advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, so I began taking them and it didn't take Doan's long to fix me up in good shape." Prices 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Clay had. Foster-McMillan Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Mary Jane Debor, born Dec. 2, 1882 departed this life May 26, 1921. Death is cruel, but life beyond the grave is sweet to them who have lived right in this life; there is no person living that shall not see death (Psa. 89:48), and there is only a step between life and death (I. Sam. 30:23); but the Lord will swallow up death in victory (Isa. 25:8); but we must first obtain the victory (I. Cor. 15:57 & I. John 5:4). Mary had the victory for she said: "I

SENATOR STANLEY SPEAKS.

U. S. Senator A. O. Stanley's friends like to keep posted on what he is doing. Recently he spoke in the Senate on the "Peace Resolution," partly as follows:

The Senate had under consideration the Knox joint resolution providing a separate peace with Germany. Mr. Stanley, Mr. President, were I seeking a simple partisan advantage rather than the good of my country I should rejoice at this hour. There is no doubt, no question of doubt, that the great majority of the American people, that the heart of the world, hungrily longs for some concert among the powerful nations of the world for the establishment of peace and the abolition of war. There is no doubt and no question of doubt that the great majority of the American people agreed with the Senator from Massachusetts (Mr. Lodge) when he declared that a slacker peace, that a separate peace, that an understanding by this Nation with Germany independent of and disregarding of the rights of our allies, would be a thing of infamy.

To-day, at this hour, we can make a peace with Germany as a victor. Pass this joint resolution and you take your hands off your mouths, you throw away ruthlessly, blindly, madly, all that a hundred thousand dead have gained, that 200,000 maimed have won, that 2,000,000 across the seas have fought to gain. You have no rights that a neutral would not have. You have no rights that you would not have had had you never spent a dollar and never sacrificed the life of a hero. This scene, this act is tragic. It is pathetic. You are drunk with power, gentlemen, upon the other side. Whom the gods wish to destroy they first make mad; and this act of separate peace with Germany is political madness. You recent all that your leaders, with a few exceptions, have said. You turn your backs upon the solemn pledges of your own candidate. You destroy the proud position earned by the blood and sacrifice of heroes, and you place yourselves upon the level of conquered Germany. When you are ready to ask a peace, it will not be as a conqueror but as an equal with the conquered.

As a Democrat, I can rejoice at this act of consummate folly. As a patriot, I could weep for the stained honor of my country.

LAWRENCE COUNTY WOMAN IN THE SUNNY SOUTH

Greensboro, Ala.

Editor News:

Accompanied by my two boys I started from home at Gallup, Tenn. for this place, to visit my sister-in-law, Mrs. Julia Burgess Henry. Stopped at Morehead for a night and day with a friend, Mrs. Belle Shilwell Parsons.

Getting into the cotton district my boys were greatly interested in seeing the darkies working in the fields, hoeing cotton, corn and peanuts. The cotton crop is almost an entire failure, being only about four inches high now and the boll weevil is already getting in its deadly work.

When we landed in Akron, Ala., about 2:30 p. m. there were about 40 persons standing around and only two white men—the railroad agent and a man who got off of the train with us.

At Newborn my nephew met us there and we drove 7 miles in the country in about 15 minutes, a fine road and level. A beautiful country, live just like Central Kentucky and the finest grass and alfalfa I ever saw. They have 8 kinds of native grass that comes without sowing.

We went out next morning where the darkies were stacking hay, a wonderful sight for us. There were ten working and they put up more hay that day than I ever saw in Lawrence county. The darkies here are so humble, mind just like children, lift their hats and grin when you pass them on the road. They call Mr. and Mrs. Henry, "Missus and Missus." We passed some cabins where some lived. They came out and passed so many compliments on the boys that they wanted to stay in their best for several days.

Cattle here are certainly fat and fine. All the wells are flowing wells, not any trouble about water.

I must tell about sunset and then close, one of the most beautiful pictures I ever saw. We came out to the plantation Wednesday evening. The sun was just going down then 7:30, and it was dark in just no time. I can't find words to describe the many beautiful flowers. Such a variety you never saw, tame or wild. So many of our house plants are growing wild. Ponds covered with massive water lilies in full bloom. Beautiful magnolias which are highly valued for their rare fragrance.

My sister-in-law, son and daughter are coming home with us and we will drive through in an automobile. I think this will be a delightful trip. We back in Kentucky about June 15.
ADDIE G. BURGESS.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT TO MANUEL VAUGHAN

On last Wednesday night at Nolan, W. Va. in the strike zone, an awful tragedy took place, in which one of our noblest and best boys lost his life, Manuel Vaughan, who was born in Lawrence county, Kentucky, and near Louisa. He was the son of W. J. Vaughan, the noted Sunday School worker of Kentucky.

Manuel was a consecrated young man; consecrated to his home, consecrated to his brothers and sisters, consecrated to his father and mother who preceded him to the glory land; consecrated to his church and Sunday School, and best of all consecrated to his precious Savior who died for us all. In the death of this noble young man the country received an awful shock. The home lost one of its beloved inmates, the Sunday School, one of its most energetic workers, the church one of its most faithful members. Heaven received one of its most beautiful flowers. Thank God.

The funeral took place under the garland of flowers at the old home place where the voice of his childhood had echoed in his life. Services were conducted by his beloved pastor, Dr. Chas. Fox Anderson, who loved him as dearly as his own. The home and lawn were packed with sorrowing relatives and friends waiting for the last look of their beloved one.

The choir sang very appropriately, then to the lonely spot where we laid him to rest by the side of his dear mother, waiting the judgment day. Manuel is not dead, but only sleeps.

Therefore, be it resolved, the church has lost one of its most noble and beloved members, the Sunday School, one of its promptest and most efficient scholars, the B. Y. P. U. one of its brightest stars, the country one of its best young men, the home one of its beloved inmates.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be printed in both the county papers and sent to the home.

May the richest blessing of God be with the broken-hearted father, the noble brothers, and the fair young sisters.

Committee—
L. F. WELLMAN,

MONROE SALMONS.

Vudor Porch Shades

Get the full benefit of your porch this Summer by equipping it with Vudor Shades. This makes a delightful place to entertain your friends or lounge in negligee. The Vudor Shades give perfect privacy to the occupant without shutting out the view.

Years of Service

They are made of wood slats, beautifully stained in rich shades of brown and green—colorings that will harmonize with most any setting. The cost is very reasonable, as their length of service extends over many years. They have a patent ventilating feature and many practical improvements for long life and convenience. One person with no other tools than a hammer can put up a Vudor and they are quickly removable in the Fall for Winter storage.

An estimate of the cost of equipping your porch, gladly furnished on request.

MISSIONARY EDUCATION MOVEMENT COMES SOUTH

Nashville, Tenn., May 21.—The Missionary Education Movement, which for many years, with headquarters in New York, operated throughout the nation as a great interdenominational missionary agency, has been taken over by the South by the Southern Methodist and Southern Presbyterian Mission Boards, which have their headquarters in this city, and by the Protestant Episcopal Board of Missions. The Movement has absorbed two or three years ago by the Inter-Church World Movement and was left without support when the Inter-Church collapsed and dissolved. That the South might not be deprived of its great value in the field of missionary education, the Mission Boards mentioned above took the movement in hand and will carry out its work from this city. Its principal field of operation will be in the preparation of mission study books, the production of general missionary literature and the holding every year of a series of great conferences for the training of missionary leaders. The Boards which have assumed the responsibility for the movement are primarily concerned just now with the summer conference for this section, to be held at the famous Y. M. C. A. Assembly, Blue Ridge, N. C. from June 24th to July 4th. The Boards have guaranteed at this conference an attendance of five hundred, and have arranged a program which will present many of the outstanding missionary leaders of the whole country, representing the principal denominations. Classes will be conducted in the new mission study books and in missionary methods and inspirational addresses will be delivered.

To the motorist who has quit guessing about tires —

A LONG about this time of year a man finds his motor- ing neighbors getting anxious about their tires. With folks expecting old tires to "pop" any minute, there comes the question of what kind of new ones to buy. U. S. Tires are answering a lot of questions like this nowadays.

The U. S. Tire following embraces two kinds of tire buyers.

Those who started with quality first, and have never bought anything else but the quality standard tire.

Those who came to quality first only after dabbling with "bargains," "rebates," "job lot" and "surplus stock" tires.

Getting one hundred cents value on the dollar in tire buying is a straight-forward business proposition — not guess-work or a game of wits.

The most essential man for you to know today is the local U. S. Tire dealer who is concentrating on a full, completely sized line of U. S. Tires.

He gets his U. S. Tires straight from his neighboring U. S. Tire Factory Branch — one of 92 such Branches established and maintained all over the country by the U. S. Tire makers.

He is the man who can give you fresh, live tires — not stuff shipped to him from some point where it did not sell, but new tires of current production.

Giving the same quality, selection and price advantage to the owner of the medium weight car as the big car owner gets. With equal service and buying opportunity whether he lives in the smaller localities or the greater centers of population.

THE U. S. NOBBY TREAD

Where the going is specially heavy with snow, mud or sand, in hilly country where maximum traction on the road is a factor, no other tire tread yet devised is quite so effective, or so wholly approved by motoring opinion, as the U. S. Nobby Tread.

Its very simplicity — two diagonal rows of oblong studs, interlocking in their grip on the road — is the result of all the years of U. S. Rubber experience with every type of road the world over.

"The most essential man for you to know today in the tire business is your local U. S. Tire Dealer."

SPIRIT'S HOUSE.
From naked stones of agony
I will build a house for me;
As a mansion all alone
I will raise it, stone by stone.
And every stone where I have bled
Will show a sign of dusky red.
I have not gone the way in vain,
For I have good of all my pain;
My spirit's quiet house will be
Built of naked stones I trod
On roads where I lost sight of God.
Sara Teasdale.

Friendship is probably the basis of a great deal of the happiness we find in this world. In a little book called "Adventures in Friendship" David Grayson, in defining friendship, says, in part:

Friendship, it seems to me, is like happiness. She flies pursuit, she is shy, and wild, and timid, and will be the best wooed by indirection. Quite unexpectedly, sometimes, as we pass into the open road, she puts her hand into ours like a child. Friendship is neither a formality nor a mode: it is rather a life.

It is not the substance of what we say to one another that makes us friends, nor yet the manner of saying it, nor is it what you do or I do, nor is it what I give you or you give me, nor is it because we chance to belong to the same church, a society or party that makes us friendly. Nor is it because we entertain the same views, nor respond to the same emotions. All these things may serve to bring us nearer together, but no one of them can of itself kindle the divine fire of friendship. A friend is one with whom we are fond of being when no business is afoot nor any entertainment contemplated. A man may well be silent with a friend. "I do not need to ask the wounded person how he feels," says the poet. "I myself become the wounded person." It is not short of miraculous how, with cultivation, one's capacity for of luxuriance friendship increases. Once I myself had scarcely room in my heart for a single friend, who am now so wealthy in friendships. It is phenomenon worthy of consideration by all hardened disbelievers in "that which is miraculous upon this earth that when a man's heart really opens to a friend he finds there room for two. And when he takes in the second, behold the skies life and the earth grows wider, and he finds there room for two more.

In a curious passage (which I understand no longer darkly) old mystical Swedenborg tells of his wonderment that the world of spirits (which he says he visited so familiarly) should not soon become too small for all the swelling hosts of its ethereal inhabitants, and was confronted with the discovery that the more angels there were the more heaven to hold them. So let it be with our friendship!

Let us analyze this wretched habit of whining. Now if it is real trouble there might be a tiny excuse for it although even then it does more harm than good — spoils dispositions — makes wrinkles and fretful faces. And any way why whine about it? When the trouble is past you will not like to remember that you cringed when you saw it coming. You will much prefer to remember that you faced it with high courage.

However, our experience has been that the people who have real trouble are, as a rule, too much occupied getting themselves out of it to whine. So most of this whining must come from the people who have only fancied trouble and for this there is surely no excuse. Most of the trouble in the world is the kind that exists only in the man's mind and we all get in our little whine about what is going to happen sometime and only about one per cent of the things we whine over ever really happen.

We see in this world chiefly what we look for. A farmer going along examines the farms, an architect the buildings, a merchant the condition of the markets, a minister the churches. He who is constantly looking for troubles will find them stretching off into gloomy wilderness. He who is watching for blessings will find them hither and thither extending in harvest of luxuriance

Birth, marriage and death are three solemn mysteries given us to study, and the second of these is the key which solves the problem of the other two, since well-born children and true wedded love will help us to bless and save this world, and send us rejoicing to receive our reward in the next.

An Interview With Col. H. C. Whitehead, Remount Service, U. S. A.

"Despite our present-day interior driven vehicles and trench warfare, the role of horses to men for the Allies was as one to four against one horse to each 33 men during our own Civil War. And had the former conflict lasted a few weeks longer, the shortage of horses would have been awfully acute. The broad plans of the American Remount Service, for selective breeding are, therefore, an important link in our chain of national defense."

The above is a statement by Col. H. C. Whitehead, of the U. S. Remount Purchasing and Breeding Service.

Seen at his headquarters in Lexington, Colonel Whitehead volunteered other highly enlightening information, not only about the breeding work in progress, but also of the utility of the thoroughbred horse; the intimate relation between racing and the maintenance and improvement of the standard of blood lines and the importance of the thoroughbred to the State of Kentucky in particular.

The immediate concern of the American Remount Association, he said, "is to save riding and driving horses and the high-class race horse from extinction. We want to produce a truly American type of cavalry horse—a horse with breeding and quality, as well as bone and substance—a weight-carrier and the best general purpose horse known—a horse that will weigh from 1,000 to 1,200 pounds, standing from 15 hands, 1 inch, to 16 hands, tight made, with good gait and action—a walk, trot, gallop horse that can carry weight and hold the horse across country—that the family can drive to church, and also one that can hold his own at hard work on the farm—a horse that can be used to advantage and economically any and everywhere, except in heavy draft."

"This type of horse has splendid looks, quality, action, and vigor—a wonderful all-purpose horse for the farmer and one that can be kept at a minimum cost."

"Almost every commercial soil military use will be met by the progeny of this breeding plan, dependent primarily upon the size, quality and blood lines of the mares used in breeding."

"Among the stallions to be placed throughout the United States this spring will be over one hundred head of high-class registered thoroughbreds—big horses, with plenty of body, bone and substance. These stallions, placed in the stud through Government agencies, will be available to farmers and breeders at a minimum fee. The Government does not expect to make money, but to make it possible and feasible for the farmer and breeder to get the service of a high-class, approved stallion for their good mares, the object being to produce untold of real value and use that will earn their keep—bring a handsome profit when mature. We expect the progeny of maturity to make general-purpose horses—cavalry horses, riding and driving horses, show horses, hunters, and horses for polo ponies, depending

On May 21, 1921, after over two years of suffering, Virgil Maynard left his earthly home for the glory land. He was born August 6, 1898. He finished his common school course and received a diploma Feb. 2, 1914. He completed his high school course and received a diploma May 29, 1918. He was always a great student and what he did he did well. He always loved his teachers and they seemed to love him.

PAINTSVILLE

Road Work to Begin.

State Engineer Mr. Posey, of Frankfort, was here last week and informed the Commercial Club that he was ready to start work on the roads in Johnson county as soon as $35,000 of the bonds voted last year were sold. The first road to be built is the road leading from Paintsville to the Floyd county line. A committee was appointed to sell these bonds. The bonds pay an interest of five per cent and are non-taxable. Johnson county bonds ought to sell readily at par as the county is entirely out of debt and in a good financial condition. These bonds ought to be sold right here in the county at once and we hope they will be disposed of and the work started on the road.

Miners Out on Strike.

The miners at Van Lear, three miles from Paintsville, are out on a strike and the mines are down. Last week the officials of the company announced a cut in wages of twenty per cent, but promised regular run of the mines if the miners would accept the cut and continue work. ### A DISTINGUISHED SOLDIER.

The importance of the interview with Col. H. C. Whitehead which appears on another page of this issue, prompts some notations about the Colonel himself.

An officer of wide and varied experience, Colonel Whitehead has specialized on the subjects of cavalry reconnaissance, and the care of the marching soldiers' feet; and he was for two years before the last war the accredited representative of the United States Government, attached to the German Staff, in order that our army might profit by the investigations of so eminent an authority on these two lines of research.

It is perhaps not generally known even to Kentuckians that Colonel Whitehead's office in Lexington is the headquarters, or main office, of the United States Army Remount Association. The significance of this choice of location is apparent. Kentucky, the home of the thoroughbred is the logical headquarters of a national organization devoted to the improvement of the country's supply of horses by means of the introduction of the potent thoroughbred strain.

Some FACTS About

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Here are authentic figures from the Ford factory at Detroit. They show you just how many Ford cars and trucks have been built each month since January 1, 1921, and how many have been sold to retail customers, in the United States.

	Produced	Retail Customers Delivered to
JANUARY	29,883	57,208
FEBRUARY	35,305	63,603
MARCH	61,886	87,221
Total Production	127,074	Total Retail Sales 208,032

showing that actual sales for the first three months of 1921 exceeded production by 80,958 Ford cars and trucks!

April requisitions already specify 107,719 additional cars and trucks and the estimated April output of the factory and essembly plants combined calls for only 90,000!

These facts clearly show that the demand for Ford products is growing much faster than manufacturing facilities to produce and were it not for the dealers' limited stocks, which are now being rapidly depleted, many more customers would have been compelled to wait for their cars. It will be only a matter of weeks, therefore, until a big surplus of orders will prevent anything like prompt deliveries.

If you would be sure of having your Ford car or truck when you want it, you should place your order now. Don't delay. Phone us or drop us a card.
